

Courtney began her dance training at the age of 6 at Debra Collier's School of Dance. She has studied in the disciplines of ballet, jazz, tap, modern, hip hop, and contemporary. She became a class demonstrator at the age of 13 and lead her own classes by the age of 17. She continued to teach and further her dance education for the next 8 years. During that time Courtney received many awards and recognition for her choreography at area dance competitions. In 2011 she became a Certified Dance Educator through the Chicago National Association of Dance Maters. She also laid the foundation for the dance program at Warsaw Community High School. Courtney has recently returned to the area from Savannah, Georgia with her husband and baby girl. She is thrilled to be back and to have the opportunity to share her joy and Paassion for dance with this community!
